THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF MINES (DR. T. SUBBARAMI REDDY): (a) Under the Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulations) Act, 1957, the State Government with prior approval of the Central Government, grant iron-ore mines to an Indian national or a company as defined in sub-section (1) of Section 3 of the Companies Act, 1956. The Coal Mines (Nationalisation) Act, 1973, as amended from time to time, allows captive mining of coal by private Indian companies for use in power generation, iron and steel manufacture and cement production.

(b) and (c) Iron-ore produced can be sold in the open market. As per available information, coal produced from a captive block if rendered surplus or in excess of the requirement due to any contingency or force majeure situation is allowed to be sold to another approved and used with prior approval of the Central Government.

(d) and (e) State Government of Jharkhand and Orissa have sought to give preference to such applications for mining leases who are willing to set up and use industry within the boundary of the State and this issue is under consideration of the Government.
